ZERO CLUB PLAY "SOMETHING NEW"

WILL PRESENT VARIETY SHOW MONDAY AND TUESDAY.

"NOT TONIGHT BEARIE"

Includes Minstrels, Mind Readers, Musical Comedy, Specialties and Classical Music.

Something entirely new in home talent productions is promised for next Monday and Tuesday nights, December 5 and 6, by the Zero Club. An elaborate variety show, said by those who have seen the rehearsals to be one of the best ever presented in Maryville, will be presented under the direction of Leo F. Mullarkey.

The curtain rises on an old plantation scene, opening with a minstrel first part, entitled "The Darkies' Convention." The stunts that the darkies go through will keep you in an uproar. Don Martin will act as the master of ceremonies. The songs are all darkey tunes, and are lively and full of pep. The end men are Dr. Jesse Miller, Jr., B. E. Condon, Perry Culver and Byron Price. The chorus in the minstrel includes the following: Emmett Bartram, Frank Cook, John Mutz, Wilson McMurry, Russell Allan, Floyd Foreman, Harvey Bush, Ralph Aley, John Price, Cecil Wilson, Francis Cummins, Frank Roelofson, Harold Roelofson, Ralph Wray, Dale Castillo, John Knox, Vodre Willoughby, Raymond Murrin, George Smith, Donald Davenport, Gerald Keef.

The minstrel is followed by a specialty by Claude Wilson, entitled "After the Bootlegger's Ball."

Then the feature act of the evening, one of the finest classical productions ever presented before with Maryville's selected talent.

During intermission, several specialties will be introduced.

The second act opens with a mind reading act presented by Madame Zoleka, assisted by Leo F. Mullarkey. This is followed by a comedy sketch entitled "The Gamboliers' with B. E. Condon, and Dr. Jesse Miller, Jr.

The final number is the musical comedy success "Not To-night Dearie." The cast for this play is as follows:

The He Vamp—Fred Knox.
A Show Girl—Ruth Miller.
Her Friend—Lucile Cummins.
Mike, who travels with Ike—Leo F. Mullarkey.

Dockery, who was third assistant postmaster general.

WOMAN MARRIED HERE IS DEAD

WAS WEDDED TO HER STEPSON IN MARYVILLE IN JULY, 1920

HER ESTATE $200,000

Mrs. Mary E. Leslie of Cumberland, Ia., Succumbs After Eighteen Months of Wedded Life

Mrs. Mary E. Leslie of Cumberland, Ia., who eighteen months ago at the age of nearly four score years eloped to Maryville with her stepson, William W. Leslie, and married him, is dead at the family home on a farm near Cumberland. The stepson was thirty years the Junior of Mrs. Leslie when he married her.

County Recorder Dan Baker and a few others in the recorder's office at that time remembered the wedding well. Mrs. Leslie was so weak she was unable to stand during the entire ceremony. It was said at that time the marriage was performed so as the property of Mrs. Leslie would go to her husband.

The Omaha World-Herald had the following about it in today's issue:

The Leslie estate, worth upward of $200,000, goes to William Leslie, through the terms of his aged wife's will. The estate includes 500 acres of land and much money and securities.

In bequeathing her share of the estate to her husband, Mrs. Leslie says the former has "always been faithful to me and helped me accumulate my property."

The will has been filed for probate.

The elopment and marriage of the Leslie's at Maryville in July of 1920 caused a sensation in this community where the family has resided for more than half a century. A family of eccentrics the union of the aged woman and her stepson was the climax of many strange actions.

In 1856 two Leslie brothers, John and Joseph, natives of Ireland, came to Cass county and settled on farms in Edna township. Old residents here who were acquainted with the Leslies in those days say John allowed his first wife to obtain a divorce so she could wed Joseph. Then John married Cudney, the woman who later eloped with his son, William. The latter is now the only survivor of the two families.

The Leslies home is seldom if ever visited by outsiders. The aged woman and her stepson-husband courted no intercourse with neighbors. They lived strictly the life of recluses. Immensely wealthy for farmers, they put no faith in banks, keeping large sums of money secreted about the house. The latter, unpretentious and more or less dilapidated, is filled with furnishings bought from mail order houses and never unpacked.

The Rolla Miners will be met Saturday night, February 4, and the team will have Sunday to rest up before tackling Kirksville on Monday night.

The home game with Tarkio will be played on the College court February 10. It will be followed by another home game the next week with Missouri Valley College of Marshall. Missouri Wesleyan and Warrensburg will be played on the last road trip, February 23 and 24. The season will be completed with two games at home, Rolla on March 2 and Warrensburg on March 4.

The only championship which was awarded, that of football, was divided between three schools, William Jewell, Kirksville and Missouri Wesleyan. Each had won six games and lost one.

Rolla's claim to equal rights with other teams was not allowed, inasmuch as the team did not play as many conference games. Each of the four teams lost one conference battle.

Steps were taken to raise the eligibility standard of the association. All of the directors present agreed to adhere strictly to the eligibility rulings.

The coaches also selected the date for the annual track meet. It will be held at Warrenton May 19, Central Wesleyan being host. Those attending the meeting were:

POULTRY SHOW TO BEGIN THURSDAY

ENTRIES WILL BE PUT IN PLACE TOMORROW

NO ADMISSION CHARGE

Number of Birds Is Expected To Reach 1,000, With Many From Boys and Girls

Everything is all set for the opening of the twentieth annual exhibition of the Northwest Missouri Poultry Association Thursday morning, according to Harve England, who is superintendent of the show this year. The coops have arrived, and the placing of the entries in the Martin building at First and Main streets will begin tomorrow morning.

There will be no admission to the show room tomorrow except to those having business. The coops, which are of uniform wire construction, will be placed in three double rows in the center of the room, with others placed against the walls. It is believed there will be space for all the exhibits, although there will be a record number.

The number of birds exhibited will probably reach 1,000, according to Mr. England. An exceptionally good showing is expected from members of the boys' and girls' poultry club, which is the largest, not only in Missouri, but in the United States. The club has 245 members, 117 of whom have reported the raising of 978 birds. There were 246 requests for settings of eggs when the club was organized this spring, settings could be furnished for but only 226 of the boys and girls. Each member is expected to exhibit at least a trio of his chickens.

The officials of the association urge that all exhibitors place leg bands on all of their birds before they are brought to the show. If they are not marked before they are placed on exhibition, a charge of five cents will be made for the leg bands. All entries must be made Wednesday.

The show will continue through Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Admission is free.

There are several exhibitors who are showing this year for the first time. One of them is a Bedford man, who is entering twenty birds.

INTRODUCE NEW TESTIMONY IN STILLMAN DIVORCE CASE

Stories of Hotel Employes Favorable to Claims of Baby Guy, Whose Parenthood Is Questioned.

Poughkeepsie, Nov. 29.—Testimony declared to be the strongest yet presented today to establish the claims of 3-year-old Guy Stillman as the son of James Stillman, multi-millionaire, was given today before Referee Daniel Gleason, who is hearing the sensational divorce and illegitimacy proceedings brought by the banker against his wife.

Charles Nascene and Theodore Roth, employees of the St. Regis hotel of New York City testified that Stillman occupied a suite at that hotel with his wife in February, 1918. The hotel register was produced to corroborate their story. Guy Stillman was born in November of the same year. This evidence is declared by Mrs. Stillman's attorneys to be indisputable proof that Stillman is the child's father.

EXPECT SHOWDOWN ON JAPANESE ISSUE

AMERICAN DELEGATION STANDS FIRM ON HUGHES PROPOSAL

WILL NOT CANCEL DEBTS

United States Will Refuse To Listen To Any Such Proposal—Todays' Meeting Postponed

Washington, Nov. 29—The long expected showdown as to whether Japan accepts the American naval program, which permanently assigns her fleet to third place among the navies of the world was knocking at the door of the arms conference today.

The experts have finished their work. After wrestling with figures in the Hughes program, they have been unable to construe them in any other way than that Japan must accept the designated ratio in capital ships. The belief prevails here that Japan will accept after a strong fight.

It was announced last night by vice Admiral Kato that Japan seeks a 70 per cent or "10-10-7" naval ratio. At the same time, it was announced that the American delegation stands firmly on Secretary Hughes' "5-5-3" ratio proposal, which means a 60 per cent status for Japan.

The conference ultimately must reconcile these two views or accept one or the other to reach agreement on naval limitations.

Vice Admiral Kato said the 70 per cent ratio was the minimum necessary for Japan's security. The American view is that 60 per cent for Japan is the maximum strength that could be accepted in view of American liabilities in the Pacific.

At ten o'clock when the five powers were scheduled to go into secret session it was announced the conference was postponed twenty-four hours.

The United States will not listen to the suggestions from foreign sources for the cancellation of the allied debts to this government amounting to about eleven billion dollars. Authorized statements today from leading administration spokesmen declared if such suggestions are officially made they will be firmly and promptly rejected.

If Premier Lloyd George comes to the arms conference as the head of the British delegation he will not bring up the question of international debts, the British headquarters announced officially today.

The printing business ought to be good in Europe where it takes a pocket full of paper money to buy a sandwich.

E. Mont Reily, Governor General of Proto Rico, who has raised such a storm of protest and hatred among the residents of that country, seems to be proceeding on the theory that he is solid with the President no matter what the Porto Ricans think of him.

China is under the handicap of having too many distinct peoples with different languages. The man of North China can not understand the man of South China and so on. The educated man of China in a Chinese restaurant in the United States, as likely as not, has to talk to the waiter in English. Too many separate peoples speaking different languages contribute just that much to the hatreds and jealousies of a country with nothing to bind them together. This is one of China's troubles but not all of them by any means.

The appointment of Col. Theodore Gary as a member of the State Highway Commission seems to be a good appointment. Mr. Gary is a man of energy and progressive tendencies and has been a very successful business man. One of his hobbies has been good roads and he has therefore given close attention and much study to road building. He formerly was a resident of Macon but for the past twelve years has lived in Kansas City where he has amassed a fortune and is the head of a four million dollar corporation. He has spent considerable of his time in Europe in promoting his telephone business. The suggestion that his appointment is to be transferred from Kansas City to Macon and that another member of the board will be appointed from Kansas City would indicate that Kansas City has an ambition to have two members on the board. It is hardly to be believed that Kansas City wants to disown so prominent and conspicuous a resident as Colonel Gary.

To Test The Bonus Law

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 29—W. T. Rutherford of St. Louis is here preparing a test case, to be submitted to the supreme court, affecting the soldier bonus law. His firm was employed last week by the state board to fund commissioners to take charge of all legal matters affecting the bonus law and the distribution of the 15 million dollars under the amendment to the constitution adopted by the people.

Rutherford said that one of the important points to be determined is if the act of the legislature supplementing the bonus amendment will have to remain inactive for a period of ninety days following the adjournment of the legislature and until the time has passed when it could be submitted to a vote of the people under referendum petitions. If it is subject to a referendum, then nothing can be done toward issuing the bonds until after the expiration of ninety days following the adjournment of the last session of the legislature.

"Since the New York bonus law was held to be unconstitutional," said Rutherford, "firms dealing in bonds of this character have become very exacting and they want a final ruling of the supreme court on every point of possible contention."

So Much for So Little Money

It is still causing great surprise that the making of Dr. Price's Baking Powder with Phosphate instead of Cream of Tartar permits such an excellent baking powder to be sold at 25c. for a large-size 12-oz. can. But a greater surprise is in the good, light, wholesome home-baking it produces.

A Large Can of

PHOSPHATE BAKING POWDER

25c

The following recipe will give a hint of the wealth of good things in the New Dr. Price Cook Book, which every woman should have.

COCOANUT LAYER CAKE

¾ cup shortening, 1 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla extract, 1 egg, 1 cup milk, 2 cups flour, ⅛ teaspoon salt, 3 teaspoons Dr. Price's Baking Powder

Cream shortening, add sugar slowly, add flavoring and well-beaten egg; add milk; mix well; then add flour, salt and baking powder which have been sifted together. Bake in three greased layer cake tins in moderate oven 12 to 15 minutes.

COCOANUT FILLING AND ICING

1½ cups granulated sugar, ½ cup water, 2 egg whites, ½ teaspoon vanilla extract, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 1 cup fresh grated cocoanut

Cook sugar and water over slow fire without stirring until syrup spins a thread; pour slowly over egg whites which have been beaten until stiff; beat until thick enough to spread; add flavoring. Spread between layers and on top of cake. While icing is still soft sprinkle thickly with cocoanut.

ENGLISH VETERANS MAY BE COLONIZED IN CANADA

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 29—Former British army officers and their families will comprise a colony to be established on 30,000 acres of land in the Lillooet district of British Columbia, under a plan now before the Royal Colonial Institute of London.

At a recent conference in London, presided over by the agent-general for British Columbia, Colonel H. F. Meurling outlined the plan. The land he stated, would be colonized and developed under the direction of a company. Half the capital stock would be taken up on a regular investment basis by shareholders. The remaining half would be issued to the British settlers.

These settler-shareholders would be employed by the company and paid monthly wages. They would be housed and otherwise provided with adequate living facilities. The proposal, London Dispatch says, was warmly approved by the Institute. Details are to be worked out by a committee comprising several members of Parliament. Sir Rider Haggard will be asked to act as chairman.

The movement is in line with various other steps taken by the Dominion and provincial Governments to aid settlers in getting a firm start on the rich lands of the West. New settlers of two or three years ago are prosperous farmers of today as a result of aid extended on choice of lands and development of mixed farming, stock raising and fruit growing.

Officials believe the plan to bring over the former British officers and their families will work out successfully.

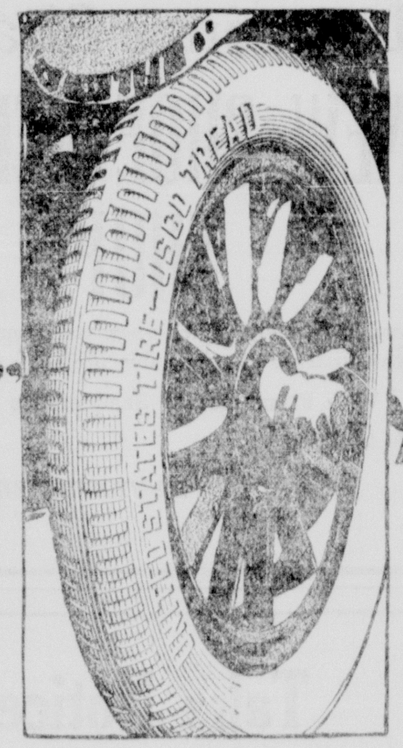
The Popular "USCO" TREAD 30 x 3½



$10.90

THE American public knows that United States Tires are never marketed on "price."

People look to the makers of U. S. Tires for quality traditions. They do not want to see a policy of superiority nibbled away for the sake of a mere price appeal.

So we say this to all those loyal followers of U. S. Tires—

Do not buy the 30 x 3½ "Usco" Tread because of its new price of $10.90.

Buy it because it is the greatest money's worth on earth today.

Buy it because of honest quality as against "bargain offers", "inside discounts" and "special trades."

An outstanding product—marked with the maker's name—the retail price quoted in plain figures.

A challenge to the tire-trader who would rather sell you an unknown tire on the basis of "so much off list"—and let you find out its real value afterward.

Prices on all U. S. Tires and Tubes Reduced Nov. 10th. Ask your dealer.

Americans Eat Too Few Fish; Here's Some Appetizing Recipes

Many families during the war formed the habit of having two or three fish days a week and some of them have kept it up ever since. Many others, if they tried it, would find that the use of more fish adds pleasant variety to the meals.

America has as good a fish supply as any country in the world, say food specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture, but Americans eat less fish than the people of many other countries. For instance, in England an average of 65 pounds of fish yearly for each person is eaten, while here the average is only 18 pounds.

All told, there are said to be about 100 kinds of edible fish available in the United States, but most persons are familiar with not more than a dozen. It is a good plan to try new kinds of fish whenever there is an opportunity and, if they are not available in the local market, to suggest to the fishman that he add them to his supply. Also, if fresh fish cannot be obtained, many kinds of salt, smoked and canned fish can be shipped anywhere at any season of the year.

How to Select a Fresh Fish.

Whenever possible, it is best to go to the market and select fish. A fresh fish has full, bright eyes, bright red gills, firm flesh, and a fresh odor. The flesh along the backbone should be examined with special care, because that is where a fish spoils first.

Frozen fish should be bought in that condition and thawed in a cool place just before cooking. Much of the prejudice against frozen fish has come from the fact that it was thawed out some time before it was sold. Fish does not change in flavor and food value so long as it remains frozen, but it spoils very quickly after it is thawed.

Broiled Fish.—Broiling over coals or under the gas flame until brown is a favorite way of preparing the smaller fish. Fresh fish of 1 to 2 pounds size, or smoked fish, such as finnan haddie or white fish, are delicious served in this way.

Wash the fish, split, season, dot with fat, place on a greased broiler, and broil until the flakes can be easily separated. If a gas broiler is used, place the rack several inches below the flame and brown. Sliced lemon makes an attractive garnish and gives additional flavor and food value.

Boiled fish—Boiled fish is easily prepared, and, when served with a well seasoned sauce, is delicious. Cook whole or, if too large, cut in pieces. Cover with boiling salted water, but do not allow it to boil rapidly, as hard boiling breaks the fish. Cook for 10 minutes per pound. Strong-flavored fish, such as carp, is improved by adding a half cup of vinegar to the cooking water.

Baked fish—Use the whole fish or a piece from the middle of a large one. If desired, stuff with mashed potatoes, cooked rice, or bread crumbs well seasoned. Cut gashes down the back and insert strips of salt pork or dot with fat. Dredge with fine corn meal or flour, place in a baking pan and cook till tender, allowing 10 to 12 minutes a pound. Sometimes fish is baked in a tomato sauce or in milk enough to cover the bottom of the pan.

Fried fish—Small fish may be fried whole; larger ones should be cut into pieces suitable for serving. Roll the fish in corn meal or flour, or dip it in batter, or in bread crumbs, egg, and again in crumbs. Fry in deep fat, or in a small amount of fat in a skillet. Fish fried in deep fat is less likely to be greasy than when fried in a pan.

Bib and Tray Cloth

Balloons, in bright colors, and an anguler elephant decorate the ample bib and tray cloth to match, made of oilcloth, as pictured above. They will afford the youngest member of the family much joy and his mother much peace of mind at the dinner table. Therefore the donor of this gift will be twice blessed and long remembered. The mottled oilcloth is cream colored and the bib is bound at the neck with white tape which is extended into ties.

FAT CATTLE AND HOGS WEAK LAMBS SHADE LOWER

Kansas City Stock Yards, Nov. 28—Live stock prices today, with the exception of stockers and feeders, developed a weaker trend, though quotable changes were small. Plain to fair fat cattle predominated the supply and those suited to any special orders were steady with others weak to 15 cents lower. Hogs were steady to 10 cents down, mostly steady. Sheep and lambs were 10 to 15 cents lower. Good clearance were reported.

Today's Receipts

Receipts today were 14,000 cattle, 11,000 hogs, and 6000 sheep, compared with 12,000 cattle, 8,000 hogs, and 4,500 sheep a week ago, and 13,500 cattle, 10,750 hogs, and 7,650 sheep a year ago.

Beef Cattle

Chicago reported another liberal supply of short fed cattle, and while the run here was moderate the market reflected the weakness in Chicago. Fat steers were steady to 15 cents lower, cows and heifers and calves steady. No choice full fed steers arrived. Plain and medium classes predominated and showed most of the decline. Short fed steers sold largely at $6.25 to $7.50. Grass fat steers were in meager supply and fully steady. Most of the cows and heifers were natives that sold at $3.50 to $5.00. Veal calves were quoted firm to 25 cents higher.

Stockers and Feeders

Trade in stockers and feeders was active with prices stronger. There was a good outside demand for feeding steers. Stock cows and heifers were in moderate supply.

Hogs

The hog market opened 10 cents lower and regained the loss later, with trade on the close active. The top price was $6.95 and bulk of sales $6.75 to $6.95. Pigs sold up to $7.25. The price spread has narrowed materially and the general market is showing unexpected strength. For some months past receipts on Thursday, Friday and Saturday have been unusually small, and the market in the latter half of the week has made a higher average than in the first three days.

Sheep and Lambs.

Fat lambs were 10 to 15 cents lower, and sheep and feeding lambs were steady. Fed western lambs sold up to $9.25 and fed ewes up to $4.00. Feeding lambs were in moderate supply.

Horses and Mules.

Trade in the horse and mule division continued light, and prices were much the same as last week.

IN BED EIGHT MONTHS

Cause—Change of Life. How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Got Me Up

Afton, Tenn.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. During the Change of Life I was in bed for eight months and had two good doctors treating me but they did me no good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and in a short time I felt better. I had all kinds of bad spells, but they all left me. Now when I feel weak and nervous I take the Vegetable Compound and it always does me good. I wish all women would try it during the Change of Life for I know it will do them good. If you think it will induce some one to try the Vegetable Compound you may publish this letter."—Mrs. A. KELLER, Afton, Tennessee.

Women from forty-five to fifty years of age should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, palpitation of the heart, smothering or fainting spells, or spots before the eyes, and prepare their system for this perfectly natural change by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has helped many, many women through this trying period, just as it did Mrs Keller.

PICKERING AND BURLINGTON JUNCTION PLAY TOMORROW

Latter Is Out For Revenge After Defeat In First Game, Played At Burlington Junction

The basketball teams of the Burlington Junction and Pickering high schools will clash for the second time this season tomorrow night, when a return game will be played at Pickering. The first game, played at Burlington Junction, resulted in a victory for Pickering, after a hard fought game. It was the first defeat for the Burlington Junction team, and they will be out after revenge tomorrow night.

Each player received a jersey and large letter "P" in green felt for his black pullover sweater.

Chevrons were given out to the players—each chevron representing a years work with the Pickering team. Following is the list of those who received chevrons and the number they received.

Forrest Smith two chevrons and a star, denoting captainey.

Russel Burks, three chevrons, Roland Rickard, four chevrons, Doyle Smith, two chevrons, Leslie Smith, one chevron, Harold Hinton, one chevron, Raymond Houston, two chevrons.

The girls also have some uniforms, having bought them some green middies and black bloomers, making them a full suit of black and green.

The girls receiving suits were: Hazel Harrington, Hazel Lamport, Hildred Hinton, Wanda Hinton, Helen Strong, Ruth Clayton, Lois King and Thelma Mann.

Charlene Hood has been elected mascot for the girls team. She also received a suit.

GERMANS WATCH ENGLAND'S ACTION

POLITICAL EXPERTS SEE JAPAN AS VICTIM

BRITISH STAND IS VITAL

Any Distrust Between Great Britain And United States Will Frustrate Naval Reduction

(By International News Service)

Berlin, Nov. 29—Here in broad outline, is an exposition of the views held by an influential group of German political writers on some of the issues at stake at the Washington Conference. The subjoined article is from the Muenchener Neueste Nachrichten:

"The Washington Conference is imminent, and never before in history has the British Empire been less prepared for fateful decisions than it is to day. America wants a plain answer as to whether England intends to sit at the conference-table side by side with her Japanese ally or whether, for the sake of her American friendship, she will deliver Japan as a victim to American plans. England will find it so much harder to make a decision because the internal unity of the Empire and the future position of the mother country in its relation to the Dominions depend chiefly upon that decision. As a power in Asia England cannot afford to make Japan her enemy without surrendering herself. But if there remains, even beneath the surface, the slightest distrust between England and America the ties between England and her Dominions will automatically be loosened, and all hope for relief from the present economic pressure will be lost.

Debt Cancellation

"Much to the displeasure of the United States, British statesmen are agitating a general cancellation of debts as the only remedy for the well-nigh intolerable economic conditions existing in the world today. America has let it be clearly understood that she would consider such a proposition only at the price of an absolute, thoroughgoing political understanding with England.

"France has always been in a much better position, for she wants nothing of America except American sanction of the French European policy and, if necessary, America's support in carrying out that policy. France's strength as a military power on land is welcome to America as a means to bring pressure to bear upon England. During the last few weeks France has gained considerable ground in the United States through clever propaganda among the people and in American Government circles. Certainly it is not for nothing that Briand resolved to take personal command of the French cause at Washington, nor is it in vain that the most famed of France's military leaders are wooing the American public in behalf of the French viewpoint.

England and France

"In these circumstances it is easy to comprehend that England, on the eve of Washington Conference, tried to draw France closer to her rather than repel her. Once again Germany—that is, German Upper Silesia—has been the common ground over which Britain and France shook hands. In making himself the executor of Clemenceau's will Briand has gained the greatest victory that could have been won against the British partner since Versailles.

"But even to-day probably no one in England doubts that this 'triumph' was a Pyrrhus victory, disastrous both to the victor and the vanquished—and the comedy of Versailles will have for its final a catastrophie that will not even leave the world's overlords at Washington unshaken."

SCHOOL AND HEALTH WEEK IN MISSOURI

Special Program Is Made For Each Day of Week of December 4th to 10th

Washington, Nov. 29—Calling attention to the fact that five million American boys and girls are not availing themselves of school advantages, President Harding today issues a proclamation designating the week of December 4 as American education week.

Public education, the president said, is the basis of citizenship and of primary importance to the welfare of the nation.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 29—"School and Health Week" in Missouri, the week of December 4 to 10, is to be carried into every home and school in the state, under plans announced here today by Dr. W. McN. Miller, executive secretary of the Missouri Tuberculosis association, which is sponsoring the School and Health Week.

Under the plans formulated by the Tuberculosis association, each day during the week has been designated as a day for emphasizing some phase of the drive for the promotion and maintenance of public health. The program for the week follows:

Sunday, December 4—Announcements of Health Week, the President's and Governor's proclamations, with a discussion of the purpose of Health Week.

Monday, December 5—Dental Day, every individual urged to have dental examinations, addresses by dentists on the care of the teeth.

Tuesday, December 6—Baby Day consultations with county health education committees and organizations interested in child welfare. Addresses by child welfare experts.

Wednesday, December 7—Life Extension Day, emphasizing the "Keep Well" idea and medical examinations in the schools, child weighing with talks by home demonstration agents on the values of foods and health habits.

Thursday, December 8—Recreation Day, pointing out the importance of play and recreation to health with talks on such subjects at schools, theaters and public meetings.

Friday, December 9—Tuberculosis Christmas Seal Day, Playlets and exhibits of health posters. Reports of progress of school health work and explanations of the Christmas seal and the double barred cross.

Saturday, December 10—Children's Christmas Seal Day.

Sunday, December 11—Tuberculosis Sunday, sermons in all churches on tuberculosis and public health, and the value of education in maintaining public health.

JOPLIN PUTS QUARANTINE ON KANSAS CITY VISITORS

Cannot Enter The City Unless Vaccinated—Situation Is Better, Says Health Officer

Although the first evidences of a cessation of the smallpox epidemic were evidenced yesterday, Joplin, Mo. was put into quarantine against travelers from Kansas City, according to the Kansas City Journal.

The quarantine against Kansas Cityans was ordered by Dr. M. T. Harutun, commissioner of health in Joplin.

Officials of railways which operate between the two cities have been notified of the conditions under which incoming passengers will be permitted to detrain and remain in Joplin.

Travelers must have a certificate of sucessful vaccination or must agree to be vaccinated upon their arrival in Joplin, Dr. Harutun declared. All incoming trains will be met by health authorities who will enforce the conditions under which the travelers may land.

The epidemic here is in its first death grasps. LeRoy Hall, superintendent of the contagious disease division of the health department, announced yesterday.

"The number of light cases found recently," Mr. Hall said, "indicates that the epidemic may die out in a few weeks.

Five deaths yesterday, four in hospitals and one in a private home, make the total fatalities ninety-eight out of 271 cases in the city since early in September.

Five persons were in a critical condition with the disease last night in the isolation ward, and ten others were marked serious. No serious cases were reported at Old City hospital.

Eight smallpox victims yesterday were discharged from the hospitals. This is the largest number to be released in one day since the epidemic started.

In order to prevent a possible spreading of the disease to towns near Kansas City, Mr. Hall and Dr. J. P. Leake of the United States public health service spent yesterday in surveying the epidemic situation and in visiting nearby towns to warn those who have not been vaccinated.

WIFE DIDN'T LIKE HIS MOTHER; HUSBAND SUES FOR DIVORCE

John Parker brought suit for divorce today against Gertie Parker after they had lived together for a period of about three weeks. The petition states the defendant was of a quarrelsome disposition and objected to the mother of the plaintiff visiting in their home. They were married in Maryville on July 18, 1921.
